MY OTHER SELF.

Dr. Gordon Eulogizes the Federal Soldier.

The Man Who Fought Not for Himself, But for Us.

Memorial Sermon by the Patriotic Boston Pastor.

The following Memorial Sermon by Dr. A. J. Gordon of this city, is published in response to numerous requests. The text and discourse, in full, are as follows:

Then, therefore, endure hardness as a good soldier, that we may prove ourselves approved unto God. For we are not fighting for our own life, but for the sake of the gospel of Christ, which is the power of God unto salvation for us who believe. For this reason, every citizen bound to serve his country when his country gives the call.

I know the thoughts of God toward me, for He is not unjust; therefore, I must endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. For I know that He who began a good work in me will complete it unto the day of Christ Jesus. Therefore, I must endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. For I know that He who began a good work in me will complete it unto the day of Christ Jesus.

The church can and will always appeal, through the music of Christianity, to the hearts of men, and to the sense of duty and patriotism, to the love of country, and to the desire for peace. It takes no heed to the taunts of Satan, and the taunts of his agents, but it stands firm in the faith of the gospel, and it proclaims the word of God with all the strength of its voice, and with all the power of its mouth, and with all the energy of its heart.

1. We must endure the hardships of war.

2. The church can and will always appeal, through the music of Christianity, to the hearts of men, and to the sense of duty and patriotism, to the love of country, and to the desire for peace. It takes no heed to the taunts of Satan, and the taunts of his agents, but it stands firm in the faith of the gospel, and it proclaims the word of God with all the strength of its voice, and with all the power of its mouth, and with all the energy of its heart.

3. The church can and will always appeal, through the music of Christianity, to the hearts of men, and to the sense of duty and patriotism, to the love of country, and to the desire for peace. It takes no heed to the taunts of Satan, and the taunts of his agents, but it stands firm in the faith of the gospel, and it proclaims the word of God with all the strength of its voice, and with all the power of its mouth, and with all the energy of its heart.

4. The church can and will always appeal, through the music of Christianity, to the hearts of men, and to the sense of duty and patriotism, to the love of country, and to the desire for peace. It takes no heed to the taunts of Satan, and the taunts of his agents, but it stands firm in the faith of the gospel, and it proclaims the word of God with all the strength of its voice, and with all the power of its mouth, and with all the energy of its heart.

5. The church can and will always appeal, through the music of Christianity, to the hearts of men, and to the sense of duty and patriotism, to the love of country, and to the desire for peace. It takes no heed to the taunts of Satan, and the taunts of his agents, but it stands firm in the faith of the gospel, and it proclaims the word of God with all the strength of its voice, and with all the power of its mouth, and with all the energy of its heart.

6. The church can and will always appeal, through the music of Christianity, to the hearts of men, and to the sense of duty and patriotism, to the love of country, and to the desire for peace. It takes no heed to the taunts of Satan, and the taunts of his agents, but it stands firm in the faith of the gospel, and it proclaims the word of God with all the strength of its voice, and with all the power of its mouth, and with all the energy of its heart.
strike the enemy, rather than wake the enemy's wrath.

Seek for peace above all

Not that I came to bring peace but a sword, says Christ, does not bring peace to the swords, but to turn on each other.

Of course, I do not mean by all this that Christians should make it a principle to say,

the very strength of the army

not that I came to bring peace but a sword, says Christ, organization, the

during the side, but an

Or course, I do not mean by all this that Christians should make it a principle to say,

the very strength of the army

not that I came to bring peace but a sword, says Christ, organization, the

during the

side, but an

Or course, I do not mean by all this that Christians should make it a principle to say,

the very strength of the army

not that I came to bring peace but a sword, says Christ, organization, the

during the

side, but an

Or course, I do not mean by all this that Christians should make it a principle to say,

the very strength of the army